

Evergreen [Bb, 60 bpm, 4/4]

[Evergreen] by Jeff Caylor & Leora Caylor

V1

Your love is evergreen holy, unchanging King
You fixed my destiny that silent night
Your mercy falling down like snow on broken ground
Where only dark was found there dawned a light

V2

It's still a mystery that You would come for me
From wealth to poverty, o night divine
As heaven's host proclaimed the One whose birth would bring Abiding perfect peace for all mankind

CH1

So rise up o my soul and find your voice
Sing your hallelujahs, make a joyful noise
For unto all the earth a hope is born
Worship and adore Him the everlasting One

V3

The lost forever found, redemption's songs resound
From ages past to now, as earth rebels
But in a stable's dust, the evidence of love
Our holy God with us, Emmanuel

CH2

So rise up all you saints and find your voice
Sing your hallelujahs, make a joyful noise
For unto all the earth a hope is born
Come let us adore Him, the everlasting One
